

WASHINGTON APPLE EDUCATION FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

AGNW Consulting. Applicants must be Washington state high school seniors or current college students from Washington state. Parents/Guardians of the applicants must be employed in an entry level or lower level management position by a commercial grower or packer in Washington's tree fruit industries. One $1000 scholarship.

Betty Campbell Loudon Memorial. This scholarship is awarded in honor of Betty Lou Campbell Loudon, a 50 year resident of the Wenatchee Valley and graduate of WSU. It is open to graduating seniors from Wenatchee or Eastmont high schools or college students from Chelan or Douglas counties graduating from Wenatchee Valley College. Students must be pursuing a degree in Family and Consumer Sciences or Education at Washington State University. Scholarship amount varies.

Bill & Pat Dewitt Memorial. Open to graduating seniors and students currently enrolled at Wenatchee Valley College from Chelan, Douglas, Grant or Okanogan counties whose parents are involved in Washington's tree fruit industry. One $500 scholarship.

Blue Bird, Inc.

Les Moser Memorial "Community Service" Scholarship. Open to graduating seniors whose parents/guardians, or applicants themselves, are employed by Blue Bird, Inc. or whose parents/guardians are growers of Blue Bird, Inc. In recognition of Les' strong presence in his community, applicant's community and school involvement will be a strong award determinant. One $1000 scholarship.

Garry Williams Memorial/Washington Cherry Growers. Open to graduating seniors whose parents/guardians, or applicant themselves, are employed by Washington Cherry Growers or whose parents/guardians are growers of Washington Cherry Growers. One $1000 scholarship.

Bob McDougall Family. Scholarship is open to graduating seniors raised in tree fruit industry families from Chelan and Douglas counties pursuing an education at Wenatchee Valley College. Scholarship will be renewed for a second year at Wenatchee Valley College upon meeting renewal terms. One $2500 scholarship awarded annually, either as a first or second year scholarship.

Borton & Sons. Borton & Sons. Open to graduating high school seniors and students currently enrolled in college whose parents/guardians are employees of Borton & Sons (Borton Fruit Company). Applicants must plan to attend an accredited two- or four- year community college, university or technical school within the territory of the United States. One $2000 scholarship.

Brian Kershaw Memorial. Established in memory of Brian Kershaw, the scholarship is open to graduating high school seniors and students currently enrolled in a two- or four- year college/university in Washington state. To qualify, applicant must be the child of parent(s) connected to Washington's tree fruit industry in the Yakima Valley. Preference will be given to students pursuing a degree in the marketing side of agriculture. The scholarship may be renewed for up to four years, for students meeting the renewal qualifications. One $3500 award will be made each year, either as a first or renewing scholarship.

C.G. Robbins Memorial. C.G. Robbins was a beloved member of the Cowiche-Tieton community. This scholarship honors his memory by assisting graduates of his high school alma mater attend college. The scholarship is open to current graduates of Highland High School pursuing an undergraduate degree at Central Washington University or Yakima Valley Community College in education, medicine/athletics or agriculture or attending Perry Technical Institute. Three $1000 scholarships.

Carl Herke Memorial. Open to graduating seniors of Highland High School pursuing a vocational education at an accredited technical school or community college. One $1500 scholarship.

CCM Scholarship Fund. Open to graduating seniors and students currently enrolled in a two- or four- year college/university whose parent(s) are employed at Columbia Marketing International, Columbia Fruit or McDougall & Sons, Inc. Parents' of interested applicants should pick up application and criteria from their personnel office. Scholarship amounts vary.

Conover Insurance. Applicants must be Washington state high school seniors or college students who are currently enrolled in an accredited Washington state college. Qualified candidates must be pursuing a career directly related to agri-business or ag insurance. One $500 scholarship.

CPC International Apple Company. Scholarship is open to graduating seniors who are community college bound and whose parents are employed by CPC International or its farm locations. Scholarship may be renewed for up to one additional year upon meeting renewal requirements, including continued full-time enrollment at a Washington state community college. One $2500 scholarship.

CPC International Apple Company. Scholarship is open to students currently enrolled in a two- or four-year college or university who have completed a minimum of one year of post high school accredited higher education and whose parents are employed by CPC International or its farm locations. One $2500 scholarship.

Crane and Crane. Scholarship is open to the children of Crane and Crane, Inc. employees, or to graduates of Brewster, Pateros and Bridgeport high school if an employee child does not qualify. Qualified applicants must be pursuing an undergraduate education at a two- or four-year college/university or accredited technical school. Scholarship is renewable for up to four consecutive undergraduate years. One $1000 scholarship.

Deborah A. Krautwurm Memorial. This scholarship is established by Wells Fargo Insurance Services. It is open to Washington state high school seniors or current college students from Washington. Applicants should be involved in Washington's tree fruit industry, either pursuing a career in the industry, including business degrees, or having been raised in a family involved in the industry. One $2500 scholarship.

Delmar Smith Memorial. Established by the Washington State Horticultural Association in memory of Delmar Smith, a leader in Washington State's tree fruit industry and in his local community, to assist Tonasket High School seniors attend a two- or four-year college/university or accredited technical college. One $500 scholarship.

Dick Clements Memorial. This scholarship is made in memory of Richard "Dick" Clements, a man known for his purpose, conviction and character and his devoted service to family, community, and the tree fruit industry. The scholarship is open to graduating seniors from Central Washington who will attend Washington State University in pursuit of an undergraduate degree. The scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years upon meeting terms of renewal. One award will be made yearly, either as a first year or renewal scholarship. One $1000 scholarship.

Don Morse Memorial/Chelan Fruit. Open to graduating seniors whose parents are growers or employees of Chelan Fruit. Preference will be given to students preparing for a career in the tree fruit industry. Renewable for one additional consecutive year upon meeting terms of renewal. Two $1000 scholarships.

Double Diamond. Scholarship is open to children of Double Diamond Fruit employees and the children of its growers' employees. The award may be used at any accredited college or university in Washington state. One $1000 scholarship.

Doug Zahn Memorial. Scholarship was established by the Washington State Growers Clearing House to honor the memory of tree fruit grower Doug Zahn, an active leader in the Washington state tree fruit industry and his community. To qualify, applicant must be an Okanogan County high school senior. The recipient must also plan on pursuing a two- or four-year agricultural related education or have parents that are either tree fruit growers or employed within the tree fruit industry. One $250 scholarship.

Douglas Fruit. Scholarship is open to graduating high school seniors from Pasco, Chiawana, Connell, Othello, Kiona Benton, Richland, Kennewick, Kamiakin, Southridge, Hanford, Burbank, or Tri City Prep whose parents are employed by Douglas Fruit Company or are involved in the tree fruit industry. One $2000 scholarship to attend a two- or four-year college or university.

E. Ralph & Ida Strausz Memorial. Recognizing the long standing relationship between the Strausz family, the Cowiche community and the Cowiche Growers, Inc., the Strausz family is offering this scholarship to a graduating senior of Highland High School (Cowiche/Tieton, WA) in memory of E. Ralph & Ida Strausz. One $500 scholarship.

Eckberg Family. Open to graduating seniors and former Manson High School graduates. Priority will be given to students who have been raised in a family employed in the tree fruit industry. Student must attend an accredited two- or four-year college or university. Scholarship is renewable for three additional years, upon meeting renewal terms. Up to two concurrent scholarships will be available each year. New awards offered when available. Two $2000 scholarships.

First Fruits Marketing. Open to employees and immediate family members of employees of First Fruits Marketing of Washington, Broetje Orchards, Columbia Valley Fruit or Congdon Orchards. Applicants may be high school seniors, undergraduate or graduate students. The award may be used at any accredited two- or four-year community college, technical institution, university or graduate school. Successful candidates must have a deep commitment to the Core Values of First Fruits Marketing of Washington: love, community, respect, compassion and purpose. Two $2500 scholarships.

Fruit Packers Supply. Open to college juniors and seniors from the Yakima Valley enrolled full-time in the agriculture department at Washington State University studying for a career in Washington's tree fruit industry. Student must be a full time student residing in (or near) Pullman and attending classes on campus. One $1000 scholarship.

G.S. Long Co., Inc. Open to graduating high school seniors or current college students from Washington state enrolled at Yakima Valley Community College, Wenatchee Valley College, Washington State University, or University of Washington. Applicant must be pursuing a career in the tree fruit, grape or hop industries and have family/parents/guardians (or applicant themselves) who are somehow involved in Washington's tree fruit, hop or grape industries. One $1000 scholarship.

George Personette/Clarence Zimmerman Memorial. Open to graduating seniors of Highland High School. One $500 scholarship.

Glady Bellamy Memorial Scholarship. Glady Bellamy was a leader in Washington's tree fruit industry. He, among others, founded Columbia Marketing International (CMI). CMI is a firm with a vast worldwide network designed to source and supply quality fruit throughout the world. Friends and family of Glady created this scholarship to honor his memory by recognizing exceptional young people that have dreamed big and made the most of their circumstances. Students raised in Washington's tree fruit industry or pursuing a career within the industry are eligible to apply. Scholarship must be used at a two- or four-year accredited community college or university. One $5000 scholarship renewable for a second year upon meeting renewal qualifications.

H.M. & Marion Gilbert Memorial. Open to graduating seniors or current college/university students pursuing a degree at an accredited two- or four-year college or university whose parents are growers or employees of Gilbert Orchards. One $1500 scholarship.

Hansen Fruit Company LP. Scholarship is open to graduating high school seniors and students currently enrolled at an accredited two- or four-year college/university in Washington state. To qualify, applicant must be from the Yakima Valley and be studying in a tree fruit related field. The scholarship will be renewable for a second year for students meeting renewal qualifications. One $1800 scholarship will be made annually, either as a first or second year award.

Harold Grim Memorial. Open to graduation seniors and former graduates of Entiat High School (Entiat, WA). One $1000 scholarship.

Howard and Helen Hauff Memorial. Washington state high school seniors or current college students from Washington state are eligible. Applicants should be studying for a degree in engineering or business and been raised in a family involved in the tree fruit industry. One $500 scholarship.

Hunter Scholarship. Scholarship honors the pioneering spirit of early tree fruit industry families and receives its name from the Hunter apple label distributed by Welch Apples, Inc. of Wenatchee. It is open to graduating seniors of Eastmont High School pursuing a two- or four-year degree at an accredited college or university. One $1000 scholarship.

Jacquelyn Horan-McDougall Memorial. Scholarship is open to children of McDougall & Sons employees with a ten year or greater employment history with the company. Scholarship amount varies and will be funded annually, either as a first or renewed award.

James E. "Jim" Loudon Scholarship. Graduating seniors from Chelan, Douglas, and Okanogan counties and students or graduates from Wenatchee Valley College originally from Chelan, Douglas or Okanogan counties are eligible to apply. Students must be pursuing a degree in agriculture business (or related field) or horticulture at Washington State University. One scholarship awarded annually. Amount TBD.

Jerry Nolen Memorial. Horticulturalist Jerry Nolen was a leader in the tree fruit industry, known for encouraging development of farm safety and environmental protections practices while at the same time, aggressively advocating for a reduction in government regulation. In his honor, this scholarship is open to Washington state students pursuing a degree in horticulture, chemistry, biology or another related field at Washington State University. Applicants should plan to work in the agriculture industry. One $1250 scholarship.

Joe Bulleri Memorial. Open to current and former graduates of Quincy High School (Quincy, WA) pursuing a degree compatible with service to the tree fruit industry at an accredited two- or four-year college or university. Two $2000 scholarships.

Jonathan Crane Memorial. Graduating seniors of Brewster High School and former Jonathan Crane Memorial scholarship recipients currently attending college may apply. Eligible applicants must be on a four-year degree path (applicants may attend the first two years of undergraduate education at a community college). Number of scholarships and amount of each varies.

Keyes Fibre. Open to Washington state high school seniors or college/technical school students from Washington state. Parents/Guardians of the applicant or applicant himself/herself must be employed in an entry level labor or management position in the tree fruit or grape industries. One $2000 scholarship.

Kibble & Prentice. Open to Washington state high school seniors, college and technical school students from Washington state. Parents/Guardians of the applicant or applicant himself/herself must be employed in an entry level labor or management position in the tree fruit industry. One $2000 scholarship.

KJ Hendershott Memorial/Chelan Fruit. Open to college juniors or seniors pursuing a career directly related to agri-business. Applicants must be from Washington state. One $1000 scholarship.

Larson Fruit Company. Open to Selah High School (Selah, WA) seniors or graduating high school seniors whose parents are employed by Larson Fruit Company or a subsidiary of Larson Orchard Management Company. One $1250 scholarship.

Louis Van Doren Memorial. Scholarship is open to Washington state students pursuing a degree in engineering at a Washington public or private four-year college or university. Scholarship will be awarded to a college sophomore, junior or senior and may be renewed upon satisfaction of requirements. One award will be made annually, either as a new or renewing scholarship. One $2000 scholarship.

Matson Fruit. Scholarship offered to a graduating senior of Selah High School (Selah, WA). One $1500 scholarship.

Migrant Student Leadership & Academic Scholarship. Scholarship is open to current and former Washington state high school seniors or current college students who moved across school boundaries between the ages 0-21 for family (or applicant) employment in agriculture or fishing seasonal work, meeting the federal eligibility criteria of the Title 1 Migrant Education Program. Applicant must possess a high degree of community service involvement or demonstrated ability to be a positive role model for migrant youth. Scholarship may be used at a two- or four-year college, university or accredited trade/technical school. Two $1000 scholarships.

Moss Adams LLP-E. Peter Krier Scholarship. This scholarship, established by Moss Adams LLP, is in honor of retired partner E. Peter Krier. During Pete's tenure at Moss Adams he served the agri-business community of the Yakima Valley with his uncanny tax knowledge and creativity. This scholarship is open to college juniors, seniors, or fifth year students from the Yakima Valley, enrolled in a university in Washington state, pursuing a degree in accounting. One $500 scholarship.

Northwest Farm Credit Services. Applicants must be Washington state high school seniors or current college students from Washington state. Parents/Guardians of the applicants must be employed in an entry level labor or entry level management position by a commercial grower or packer in Washington's tree fruit industries. Top candidates are those pursuing degrees compatible with banking and lending. Two $1250 scholarships.

Olson's Honey. Scholarship is open to college-bound or college enrolled students whose parents are employed by, or applicants themselves are employed by, Olson's Honey (bee operation or orchard). Scholarship may be used at any accredited two- or four-year college, university or technical school. Award numbers and amounts vary.

Olympic Fruit. Open to graduating seniors or current college/university students pursuing a degree at an accredited two- or four year college or university who are employed by or whose parents are employed by Olympic Fruit. Two $1000 scholarships.

Oneonta Trading Corporation/Cooprider. This scholarship funded by Oneonta Trading Corporation honors the dedication of Sandy Cooprider, a Wenatchee Valley College physical education educator, to higher education. The scholarship is open to Hispanic college-bound or college-enrolled students participating in college sports at Washington state public colleges or universities whose parents are involved in Washington's tree fruit industry. Preference will be given to students attending Wenatchee Valley College. Four $3000 scholarships.

Orville & Bertha Peebles Memorial. This yearly scholarship is awarded in honor of Orville & Bertha Peebles, long time residents of the Lake Chelan Valley and growers of Washington apples. It is open to current and former graduates of Chelan and Manson high schools raised in families connected to the tree fruit industry. One $1000 scholarship.

Pace International. Scholarship is open to high school graduates and current undergraduate college students pursuing biology or chemistry related majors or preparing for production related careers in the tree fruit industry. Eligible students are those with ties to Washington's tree fruit industry. Two $1000 scholarships.

Phil Jenkins Memorial/POM Club. Open to students currently enrolled or entering a college/university who plan to live and work in the tree fruit industry in the Yakima Valley following the completion of their degree. Scholarship is awarded on behalf of the Yakima Pomological Club. Scholarship amount varies.

Pottratz Family. Open to current and former graduates of Highland High School attending a two- or four-year community college/university or technical school. Two $1000 scholarships.

Richard W. Keller Memorial. Graduating high school seniors and continuing college students whose parents, or applicants themselves, are current employees or growers of Apple King and students whose parents, or applicants themselves, are employees of Keller Fruit, Pro Orchard, JNK Orchards or Bosma Ag Enterprises are eligible to apply. One $1000 scholarship.

Robert & Hope Allan Memorial. Open to graduating seniors of Naches High School (Naches, WA) pursuing a degree at an accredited two- or four- year college or trade school. Preference will be given to students anticipating a career in agriculture and/or students with an involvement in agriculture, whether familial, community or school programs, or high school vocational courses. Scholarship numbers and amounts vary.

Robert Prince Memorial. Scholarship honors American hero and former Gwin, White & Prince president Robert Prince. Mr. Prince received the Distinguished Service Cross for his service in the Army during World War II. Scholarship is open to graduating seniors from Chelan and Okanogan counties raised in families involved in the tree fruit industry and pursuing an education at Wenatchee Valley College (either its Wenatchee or Omak campus). The scholarship will be renewable for a second year upon meeting the criteria. One $1000 scholarship will be awarded annually, either as a first or second year award.

Roy Farms. Open to East Valley High School (Moxee, WA) seniors who are pursuing a degree in the field of agriculture (or related fields) OR who are children of a parent(s) currently employed by Roy Farms, Inc. One $2000 scholarship.

Sagemoor Farms. Open to graduating students and students currently enrolled in a two- or four- year college/ university program whose parents are employed at Sagemoor Farms (Pasco, WA). Amount varies.

Snokist Growers. Open to graduating seniors whose parents/guardians, or applicants themselves, are employees or grower members of Snokist Growers. Two $1000 scholarships.

Stadelman Fruit-Lower Yakima Valley. Open to graduating seniors from the lower Yakima Valley whose parents are growers or employees of Stadelman Fruit LLC. Students must plan to attend an accredited two- or four- year community college, university or technical school. Scholarship is renewable for one additional year, upon meeting terms of renewal. Three $1000 awards.

Stadelman Fruit-Hood River. Open to graduating seniors whose parents are employees or growers of Stadelman Fruit LLC located in Hood River. Students must plan to attend an accredited two- or four- year community college, university or technical school. Scholarship is renewable for one additional year, upon meeting terms of renewal. Two $1000 scholarships.

Stemilt Growers, Inc. Accounting. Scholarship is open to college students entering their junior or senior years and pursuing a career in accounting. In addition to the scholarship award, students will participate in a two-month internship in the accounting department at Stemilt's Wenatchee headquarters. Applicants must have ties to North Central Washington. The award may be renewed for up to one additional year, upon meeting renewal requirements. An interview will occur with finalists prior to final decision. One $2500 scholarship.

Stemilt Growers, Inc. Scholarship is open to graduating high schools seniors whose parents are full time employees of Stemilt Growers, Inc. (warehouse, administration & orchards) and have been employed by the company for a minimum of six-months. Applicant must be pursuing a four-year undergraduate degree at an accredited university. Upon meeting qualifications, scholarship may be renewed for up to three additional years. One $4000 scholarship awarded yearly, either as a renewal award or first year award.

Stemilt Growers, Inc. Scholarship is open to children of full time employees of Stemilt Growers, Inc. (warehouse, administration & orchards) or employees themselves with a minimum of six-months employment history with the company. Applicant must be pursuing a two- or four-year undergraduate degree at an accredited college or university. One $4000 scholarship.

Strand. Open to graduates of Highland High School (Coviche/Tieton, WA). To qualify, students must submit their response to the Strand scholarship essay question, along with the completed WAEF Universal Scholarship Application Form. Strand essay question is available at the high school's counseling office. Award amounts and numbers vary.

Syngenta. Scholarship is open to students raised in families with tree fruit industry ties who are also pursuing a career in the tree fruit industry. Graduating high school seniors and students already enrolled in college are eligible for consideration. Student must enroll in a college degree program designed to prepare them for employment in production agriculture. The scholarship may be used at any accredited two- or four-year college, trade or technical school located in Washington state. One $2500 scholarship.

Thomas K. Mathison Memorial. Thomas K. Mathison was the founder of Stemilt Growers, Inc. Through hard work and dedication he built a company that is known world-wide for its superior quality apples and cherries. To honor him, friends and family created this scholarship in his memory recognizing students with strong character and a will to succeed. Students raised in Washington's tree fruit industry or pursuing a career within the industry are eligible to apply. Scholarship must be used at a two- or four-year accredited community college or university. One $5000 scholarship.

Tim & Berti Stewart Family. Open to graduating seniors raised in the lower Yakima valley (Prosser, Sunnyside, Grandview, Zillah, Granger, Toppenish, etc) with connections to the agriculture industry. One $1000 scholarship.

Tree Top, Inc.. Open to graduating high school seniors whose parents are either: (1) contracted grower-members of Tree Top, Inc., or (2) employees of Tree Top, Inc. Applicants must plan to attend an accredited two- or four-year college or university. Selection is based on merit and academics; family financial information is not a requirement of the application process. The scholarships are not limited to residents of Washington state. Two $1250 scholarships.

Valent USA. Open to students enrolled in the tree fruit programs at Yakima Valley Community College, Wenatchee Valley College, or Washington State University. Two $1000 awards.

Valley Fruit Company. Scholarship is open to graduating seniors who are the children and grandchildren of employees of Valley Fruit Orchards; graduating seniors who are the children and grandchildren of growers and employees of Valley Fruit III; and graduating Wapato High School seniors. Eligible applicants must pursue an education at Yakima Valley Community College or Big Bend Community College (Moses Lake). This scholarship covers the cost of tuition at the named colleges and is renewable for a second year, upon meeting renewal criteria.

Van Doren Sales. Open to graduating seniors and former graduates of Eastmont, Wenatchee, Cascade, Cashmere, Chelan, or Waterville high schools pursuing a vocational education at a two-year community college or vocational trade school in Washington state. One $1500 scholarship, with second year renewal upon qualification.

Washington Apple Education Foundation. Washington state high school seniors or current college students from Washington state are eligible. Applicants should be involved in Washington's tree fruit industry, either pursuing a career in the industry or having been raised in a family involved in the industry. Applicants cannot be related to current WAEF directors or WAEF staff members. Scholarship amounts and numbers vary.

Washington Fruit & Produce Company. Rick & Lisa Plath have created this scholarship for children of Washington Fruit & Produce Company employees. Scholarships are open to graduating seniors or current college students whose parents are regular employees (employed for a minimum of one year averaging 1200 hours/year) of Washington Fruit & Produce farms in the Royal City area. Students must attend college, university or accredited trade school within the territory of Washington state. Financial need is a primary consideration. Scholarships range in size from $3500 to $5,000 per year based on tuition costs at the applicant's chosen college/university and may be renewed for consecutive years on a year to year basis.

Washington Fruit & Produce Co/Royal High School. Cliff & Janie Plath have created this scholarship for children of Washington fruit & Produce Company employees attending Royal High School. Scholarships are open to graduating seniors or current college students whose parents are regular employees (employed for a minimum of one year averaging 1200 hours/year) of Washington Fruit & Produce, including its warehouse and farm locations. Students must attend college, university or accredited trade school within the territory of Washington state. Financial need is a primary consideration. Scholarships range in size from $3500 to $5,000 per year based on tuition costs at the applicant's chosen college/university and may be renewed for consecutive years on a year to year basis.

Wells Fargo Bank. Scholarship is open to graduating seniors and current college students from Washington, Oregon and Idaho pursuing a degree at four-year colleges/universities in preparation for an agribusiness career. One $2500 scholarship.

Wenatchee Traffic Association. Open to Washington state high school seniors or current college students from Washington state pursuing a career in the tree fruit industry and whose parents/guardians (or applicants themselves) are somehow involved/employed in Washington's tree fruit industry. Applicants must be residents of Chelan, Douglas, Grant or Okanogan counties. Preference will be given to students who plan to attend, or are attending, Wenatchee Valley College. One $500 scholarship.

Wilbur Ellis. Applicants must be Washington state high school seniors or current college students from Washington state. Parents/Guardians of the applicants or applicants themselves must be employed in an entry level labor or entry level management position by a commercial grower or packer in Washington's tree fruit, grape or hop industries. Ten $1000 scholarships.

Yakima Fruit & Cold Storage. Scholarship is open to children of Yakima Fruit & Cold Storage full-time employees. Award may be used at an accredited two- or four-year college/university or technical college. Two $1000 scholarships.

Yakima Valley Growers-Shippers Assn.. Open to graduating seniors and current Washington state college students who are employed by or are children of general members of the Yakima Valley Growers-Shippers Association (YVGSA) or the children of employees or growers of a general member of the YVGSA. Applicants should be pursuing a degree compatible with service to the tree fruit industry (horticulture, business, refrigeration, etc.). Two $1000 awards.