INTERNATIONAL CENTER (IC):
Open Monday thru Friday from 8:00 AM -5:00 pm, the IC offers services to international and domestic students, faculty and staff with international interests. The IC hosts a variety of programs, is home to 15 different Registered Student Organizations, and serves as a cross-cultural gathering place. The International Center brings out the “World Class. Face to Face” at Washington State University.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK (IEW):
IEW is an entire week (Sept. 24-Oct. 2) dedicated to cross-cultural education and awareness. IEW is sponsored by ASWSU’s International Students’ Council (ISC). Everyone is invited join and plan IEW events.

If you are interested in taking part in one of the largest diversity events at WSU, then come to the weekly planning meetings on Tuesdays at 6:00 pm in CUB B-25 or e-mail akfolger@hotmail.com

PEER MENTORS:
The Peer Mentor program matches new international students with experienced WSU students. Mentors help international students adjust to American culture, university life, and WSU by being a friend and resource. Mentors participate in a leadership training program, participate during international student orientation and complete a semester project to enhance their cross cultural leadership skills in their field of study.

Earn internship credit for being a Mentor and contribute to internationalizing WSU!

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS’ COUNCIL (ISC)
The International Students’ Council (ISC) offers both international and domestic students leadership opportunities to become involved in student government for the international community at WSU. Interested in developing your leadership skills in a culturally diverse environment? Then join our team in student programming, leadership development and promotion of internationalization at WSU.
