

Northwest World History Association Conference Program
Washington State University, Vancouver Campus
October 16-17, 2004

Saturday, October 16

7:45-8:30 am

Registration and Coffee/muffins

WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 22

Session 1: 8:30-10:30 am

The individual in world history

WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 6

Papers: The Role of the Individual in World History: Topics for New Research in the Pre-Modern Period

Mary Jane Maxwell, Washington State University

Martí and the Gita: the Spiritual Foundations of Revolution

Armand Garcia, Washington State University

The Most Parisian of Muslims: Kaddour ben Ghabrit

Jonathan G. Katz, Oregon State University

Chair/Comment: Roger Schlesinger, Washington State University

10:30-10:45 am

Coffee/bagels

WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 22

Session 2: 10:45 am-12:45 pm

World history in the classroom

WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 6

Papers: World History as a Way of Thinking

Eric Martin, Lewis and Clark State College

Enlivening World History through Electronic Presentations

Richard Williams, Washington State University

Constructive Critiques of Modernization: a Critical and Narrative-based Approach to Teaching World History

Eric Cunningham, Gonzaga University

Chair/Comment: Mary Watrous-Schlesinger, Washington State University

Special Plenary Luncheon: 1:00-2:30 pm

Speaker: David Christian, San Diego State University
WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 22

Session 3: 2:45-4:45 pm

Gendered perspectives on world history
WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 6

Papers: Politics and Religion: Strange Bedfellows in Early Modern England
Mary Stuart, Washington State University, Vancouver
"Le Petit Paris des Antilles": Saint-Domingue Seen by an American Woman on the Eve of the Revolution
Cécile Accilien, Portland State University
Dying on their Own Terms: Jewish Women Choosing Resistance in Polish Ghettos, 1939-1945
Cynthia Ross, Washington State University
Gendering Social Spaces in Mexico and the United States: Mexicanas in San Ignacio and Detroit
Luz-Maria Gordillo, Washington State University, Vancouver

Chair/Comment: Heather Streets, Washington State University

Reception at Portland State University Campus: 6:00 pm

Sponsored by Portland State University

Sunday, October 17

8: 00-8:30 am

Coffee/bagels
WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 22

Session 4: 8:30-10:30 am

Language and boundaries in world history textbooks
WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 6

Papers: Language in World History Textbooks
Jon Flashnick, Washington State University
Borders and Boundaries in World History Textbooks
Mark Gottshalk, Washington State University

Eurocentrism in History Textbooks
Paul Fisher, Washington State University

Chair/Comment: Candice Goucher, Washington State University, Vancouver

Session 5: 10:45 am-12:45 pm

Transnational connections
WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 6

Papers: The symbolic and archaeological significance of Le Morne Brabant: A maroon slave site of Mauritius

Amitava Chowdhury, Washington State University

Determinants of Exchange Rates at the Paris Bourse, 1746-89: the Balance of Foreign Trade vs. International Capital Transfers

Thomas Luckett, Portland State University

The Violent Legacy of Colonialism

Joseph Debons, Washington State University

Free Territory: the Emergence of an Atlantic Legal/Political Principle

Sue Peabody, Washington State University, Vancouver

Chair/Comment: Linda Walton, Portland State University

Lunch: 1:00-1:45

Session 6: 2:00-3:00

Special Presentation on Oregon Public Broadcasting's Bridging World History Project
WSU Vancouver, Multimedia Classroom Building rm 6

Presenters: Candace Goucher, Washington State University
Linda Walton, Portland State University